Announcement

WE ARE proud to be able to invite all Shorthorn breeders and friends to attend our 4th Annual Sale, which is to be held at Glenburn Farms, Unionville, Ontario, on Tuesday, October 8th, 1940.

It is our conviction that in these troubled days it is the duty of every breeder on this fortunate continent to do his utmost to produce better livestock and eliminate the scrubby, inefficient kind. With that in mind, we have selected this offering from three herds that for several years have won more than all other Canadian herds put together. 80% of the classes at the six best Shorthorn shows in Canada this year have been won by Brae Lodge, Aberfeldy, or Glenburn. 40% of the offering comes from the show circuit. We believe that if you seek type, breeding and quality, you would be very wise to examine these cattle carefully before investing elsewhere.

U.S. breeders who decide to purchase in these Canadian sales have the additional advantage of being able to secure a 10% premium on U.S. funds. Don't miss this golden opportunity.

T. A. RUSSELL,
Brae Lodge Farm.

JOHN GARDHOUSE & SONS,
Aberfeldy Stock Farm.

F. H. DEACON & SON,
Glenburn Farms.

Glenburn Farms, scene of the sale, can be reached within a 40 minute drive from Toronto. Just 1¼ miles north of No. 7 Highway, the farm is in easy reach of many of the best Shorthorns in Canada. The Klaymor farm of Mr. W. J. Russell adjoins Glenburn, and will be the site of the Oct. 7th sale of Mr. Russell and Jas. Douglas & Sons. Beath Farms, where the Beath-Murphy sale is to be held on October 9th, is about 25 miles east.

Luncheon will be provided on the grounds starting shortly before noon.
